1. Tell us a little about your music experience:

2. What intrigues you about Miles of Music Camp?

3. What are you most inspired to learn at camp? Please check out our web site, read the instructor bios & sample schedule and answer as specifically as possible in terms of what you would like to get out of the experience:

4. Briefly describe your financial situation and your reason for requesting financial aid:

5. PLEASE note the scholarships for which you will apply:

First Timers Community Continuity Beginner's Mind Apprentice

FIRST TIMERS ($750): For campers in need of financial assistance who have not attended Miles of Music Island Camp before. Note: ONE of the two First-Timer Scholarship recipients will be asked to perform a song at Club Passim's Iguana Fund Showcase in Cambridge, Massachusetts on April 10th. Could you be available for this event? (yes / no)

To Apply: Please submit two diverse sound samples of your music. If you are a professional musician they should be from your most recent release. If you have not yet released an album please submit two live MP3 recordings made on a smart phone or other simple recording device.

COMMUNITY CONTINUITY (TBD): For returning campers who are team players focused on inclusivity and interested in jamming.

To Apply: Please submit a smart phone or other draft style recording that showcase tunes or songs you would play while facilitating a jam. Also, write a paragraph about your involvement in the Miles of Music Camp island community, your skills at leading jams and ways you would promote inclusivity of newer and less outgoing campers at Miles of Music Camp this summer.

BEGINNER'S MIND (TBD): For returning or first-time campers new to their instrument of choice.

To Apply: Please write a paragraph about what new instrument you are hoping to study at Miles of Music Camp this year and what learning a new instrument means to you.

APPRENTICE (TBD): For returning or first-time campers who will get something uniquely beneficial from one or more of this year's instructors.

To Apply: Please check out our web site, read the instructor bios & sample schedule and answer as specifically as possible in terms of why one or more of this year's instructors would be a unique benefit to your musical development.
